until recently the only option for instrument rating training in europe was a full course requiring up to 200 hours of theoretical knowledge instruction but the enroute and competency based instrument ratings for aeroplanes only are a part of a new approach that is supposed to make instrument flying more accessible because the original courses were designed as part of a commercial course and were necessarily intense this book is for people who already hold an icao ir and who can simply convert to the easa version by completing the skill test and demonstrating to the examiner during the skill test an adequate knowledge of air law meteorology and flight planning it contains all the information needed to answer the examiner s questions plus tip and tricks not usually taught on such a basic course ground study material for european pilot s written exams aeroplanes helicopter the recruitment process at any large airline can be a daunting process and may be the most significant milestone in a professional pilot s career this book is intended to guide candidates through the entire application and screening processes enabling better understanding of air canada s selection techniques and expectations if your dream is to be an airline pilot or you would like to know what it takes this book reflects the experiences thoughts and findings of a trainee pilot throughout the journey that took him into the right hand seat of a jet airliner the book covers everything that you need to consider before and during the training process including where to train and how to raise funds the flying course structure and ground school subjects are detailed and many sample exam questions are included to give a flavour of what lies ahead the book also looks behind the scenes at life on a training campus and considers all the important practicalities before going on to look at how to find that dream job this book written by an airline captain and aviation career counselor is a compilation of articles on a variety of subjects ranging from the concrete mechanics of finding a flying job to the subtle nuances of attitude and personal presentation
